The Misses Clotilde and Angela Devlin, of San Francisco, are the guests of Miss Mable Hirsch this week.

George Anthony was down from Covelo the first of the week after a load of freight for Covelo's merchants.

F. A. Grothe, of Bell Springs, and J. G. Burns of Cahto, two prominent wool men are in town attending wool sale.

A. V. McNab, who is conducting a grain and feed business in Santa Rosa, was up on business last Saturday.

J. O. McSpadden, C. P. McGimsey, Tom Edwards and Al Ruddock were in from Anderson this week with their wool.

Jack Crane, of Covelo, has been sentenced to the penitentary for one year for forging his brother's name to a pension affidavit.

Miss Pearl Fine closes her Art class for the summer, this week. Before taking up work again she will pay a visit to the Yosemite.

Tom Adams, formerly of this city has returned on a visit to friends after an absence of five years. He was cordially greeted by the boys.

D. L. Cox, N. P. Rogers, J. Rucker, Wm. Fulwider, Bob Wright and Charley Bean are down from Willits this week with their spring clip of wool.

Roy Douglass and Miss Etta Broback were married in San Francisco last Saturday evening. They have the best wishes of many friends in this vicinity.

Misses Irma and Sybil Asbill who have been attending school in Petaluma, came up last week on a short visit to relatives here before departing for their home at Harris

Miss Genevieve Kelton, who has been teaching in the Ventura schools for the past year, is home on her annual vacation. She will return in a few weeks to resume charge of her school.

A. Zenger, the oil man, left yesterday for Contra Costa county on business. His men are still boring for oil here and expect to strike it rich as soon as they bore thru a layer of granite that is in the way. Zenger feels sanguine that success is near.

Miss Mollie Taylor will graduate in the conservatory course of music given under the instruction of Mrs. Leta Wadsworth, the 30th of this month. Miss Mollie has received great encouragement from leading pianists of the Pacific Coast. She will study in San Francisco next year.

The scheduled bicycle race at Blue Lakes last Sunday did not come off as Ukiah's opponents failed to put in an appearance. The Ukiah team—Chancy York, Frank Collier, Harry Rogers and Jerry Ginochio—rode around the lake and were awarded the $20 silver cup. A large crowd spent the day at the lakes.

Mr. Frank Schlesinger, of New York, and Miss Eva Hirsch, of this city, were married last Tuesday at the home of the bride by Judge J. M. Mannon, The wedding was a quiet affair, only the immediate relatives and friends being present. The happy couple left on the noon train for San Francisco. They will return and take up their residence in this city about July 1st.

ASYLUM AFFAIRS.

The contest for political supremacy at the local hospital is still on. In addition to the facts as stated in our last issue other complications have arisen which will only be decided after a bitter contest.

When charges were preferred last week against Dr. E. W. King by the attorneys of M. M. Carothers, affairs took a peculiar course. Dr. Twitchell the able interne, resigned and immediately left for San Francisco. It is said that Twitchell preferred not to be a witness in the disagreeable contest and left the county so that he could not be called as a witness.

Dr. King then became aroused and notified G. W. Jones the steward that his services were no longer required, giving as a cause insubordination. Jones remonstrated and asked the Superintendent to cite some instance of insubordination. King didn't seem to care about arguing the question and said: "I'll let you know that you are discharged; I'm superintendent here, sir". To which Jones replied: "Is that so? Why, I thot Fred Handy was. I shall still continue to preform my duties here until the Board of Directors discharge me". Dr. King then appointed F. C. Handy, private secretary, to the stewardship which he supposed Jones would give up. So the Asylum is without a secretary and an interne but has two stewards. This will possibly insure sufficient "grub" for the patients for a few days at least.

It is too bad that the efficiency of the institution should be impaired by such rumors of scandal that are now floating around the institution.

Politics is said to be at the bottom of the case and that the old fight between the Duncan-Handy push and the Press gang is the real bone of contention. At least this is what the opponents of Dr. King claim. Dr. King on the other hand, says that politics has had nothing to do with his actions. He says that the discharged employees were not up to the standard and were incompetent and that he discharged them for this reason.

The case will come up before the Directors at the next regular meeting.

Dr. King has employed Seawell & Pemberton and M. M. Carothers has T. L. Carothers and J. C. Ruddock to look after his fight, while W. G. Jones has secured the services of ex-Governor J. H. Budd.

In the meantime King is trying to keep Jones from acting as steward and is changing the locks on the doors to which Jones has keys.

An Interesting Convention.

The W. C. T. U. Convention of this county met in Ukiah last Friday at 9 o'clock A. M. and continued until Sunday evening. The sessions of Friday were taken up with the business of the organization. Friday evening a public meeting was held at St. Johns M. E. Church. Addresses of welcome to the visiting officers and delegates by Jno. L. McNab, on the part of the city; Rev. Mr. Winsor for the churches and Mrs. M. Glazier for Ukiah Union. Mrs. C. Morgan of Mendocino, made the response to the addresses. Mrs. L. R. Miller, County President then delivered the annual address, which was about as near perfect in thought, style and delivery as could well be. Mrs. Miller resides at Cleone and she showed marked ability both as Presiding officer and orator. The evening program was interspersed with music by the church choir, and instrumental selections by the string orchestra, all of which was much appreciated by the large audience.

Saturday was again devoted to business. Saturday evening Mrs. Dorcas J. Spencer, of San Francisco gave an address on "Temperance Geography," illustrated by a map of the State showing the number of prohibition towns and counties in the State. There are two prohibition counties and a large number of towns. Mrs. Eugenia St. John of Kansas made an address on the general subject of temperance and prohibition which stamped her as a woman of rare ability both as a thinker and public speaker. Mrs. St. John has travelled extensively in this work, both, in, America and England and has accumulated a mass of information which equips her quite thoroly. The music was also excellent. On Sunday Mrs. St. John preached at St. Johns church, and at 3 o'clock P. M. there was a Union Sunday School meeting at the M. E. Church, South, which was addressed by Mrs. Spencer and Mrs. St. John. Sunday evening Mrs. St. John delivered an able address to a crowded house at the Baptist church. All the meetings of and incident to the convention were most pleasant and instructive.

Ukiah Ministerial Union.

The Ministerial Union met last Monday in St. Johns M. E. Church. There were present, Revs. Waldrop, Coffin, Winsor and Gillies.

The Rev. Mrs. St. John had been invited to address the Union, but owing to her having had to leave the city early in the day for Willits she kindly provided a substitute in the person of Mrs. Dorcas Spencer, of San Francisco, State Secretary of the W. C. T. U., who addressed the clergymen along the lines of temperance work. This good lady, having distinguished herself as a temperance worker for the past twenty-six years continuously, had much to say that was of interest and profit to her small but deeply interested and highly appreciative audience. After she had delivered her address a most delightful, edifying and animated discussion took place with reference to particular phases of temperance and of other live, practical issues of the day.

A vote of thanks having been tendered Mrs. Spencer for her cheering remarks she thereupon bade the Union good-bye, and expressed her extreme pleasure for the privilege of having thus conferred with the ministers of Ukiah whose mutual fraternity at their regular meetings as well as in every other capacity of clerical intercourse, may not be surpassed anywhere.

Having had nothing else worthy their time and attention to consider at this meeting, the Union adjourned to meet next Monday in the lecture-room of the Baptist Church.

Base Ball.

The members of the Ukiah Base Ball team held a meeting Wednesday evening and the following officers were elected: Jake Newcomer, Manager and Treasurer; Lee Cunningham, Secretary; E. J. Sanford, Captain; Harry Rogers, Mascot.

First game of the season will be played on Ukiah grounds, between Hopland and Ukiah on June 24th. The line-up of the team can not be given, but the battery will be Sanford and Sanders.

The Wool Sale.

The town has been pretty well crowded this week with wool men from various sections of the county. Up to last night there had been stored in Crane's ware house 1125 sacks, averaging about 325 lbs to the sack, making a total of 365,625 lbs.

The market has not opened up very brisk as yet. Some small sales have been made at 17c. If the entire lot goes at 17c, the receipts, will amount to $62,156.25. The output this year is larger than it has been for a number of years. The quality is good.

A. J. Bledsoe paid a visit to San Francisco this week.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Important Occurrences of the Past Seven Days.

Summary of What has Just Occurred. Accidents and Incidents.

The town has brought suit against the Water Company for loss and damage to the town property caused by the fire occurring in Matt Wrights Stable on the night of July 16, 1899.

The suit came up on demurrer before Judge Angelotti of Marin County, who sat for Judge Mannon to hear the argument.

The Judge has rendered his decision on the demurrer holding that the Town has a cause of action but sustaining the demurrer on the point that there is no direct allegation in the complaint that the loss to plaintiff was caused by defendant's failure to comply with the terms of the contract. On this point the complaint can be amended and made to obviate objections raised by demurrer.

The town has ten days from notice of decision to amend.

Seawell & Pemberton and City Attorney Ruddock have the case in charge and the complaint will be amended at once.

Woodmen of the World.

The San Francisco District Convention Woodmen of the world convened at Santa Rosa on Wednesday of this week. The local camp was represented by W. G. Poage, O. J. Moseley and D. Leishman. This district comprises San Francisco, Marin, San Mateo, Sonoma, Mendocino and Humboldt counties with about 3000 members and these were represented at Santa Rosa by about 120 delegates. This district is entitled to four delegates to the Head Camp the law making body of the order which meets at Salt Lake City in August and the principal work of the District Convention was to elect these delegates, and there was a strong rivalry among the camps for this honor.

Yokia Camp of Ukiah succeeded in getting one of these delegates, W. G. Poage, being the one selected and San Francisco got the other three. The local camp feels much elated over the honor given them as Neighbor Poage will go as a representative of 800 Woodmen.

The North Fork Road.

The North Fork road to Comptche is now almost an assured fact. Judge Mannon handed down his decision this week in the condemnation suit and granted the right of way over the disputed territory, fixing the damages as fixed by the viewers. This decision will be hailed with delight in the Christine section. District Attorney W. G. Poage and J. C. Ruddock represented the County in the action.

Graduated with Honors.

Mr. F. R. Estes and Miss Miriam Estes, formerly of this city, graduated from the San Jose Normal School yesterday with high honors. The many friends of the two happy graduates in this county extend congratulations and hope they both may be successful in securing schools.

Picnic Postponed.

The Sunday School picnic of the M. E. Church, South has been postponed on account of the rain.

Party at Laytonville.

A social musical of the polite and recherche order, was tendered the departing Misses Britton before their departure for their Fort Bragg home by Miss Nettie Dill Tuesday evening where a program of music, literature and recitations was rendered that was voted a rare treat by all who were fortunate enough to be present. The parents of the Misses Dill showed solicitous care in looking after the comfort of the guests. The program consisted of many up-to-date features embracing a soprano, war melody solo rendered by Miss Ella Britton that was deeply inspiring with its succession of musical sounds, together with a quartette by the Misses Dill, Miss Britton and Mrs. Wade, also a spirited recitation by Miss Maude Britton. Special mention is due to Mrs. L. Redemeyer's masterly rendition of a vocal solo. Mr. Fred Redemeyer also favored the ladies with a grand recital. A bounteous spread of viands was a refreshing closing feature of the program. The guests returned home at midnight. B.

Smith-Upp.

Mr. W. E. Smith, of San Francisco and Miss Ida Upp, of Willits, were married at the home of the bride's mother at Willits last Sunday evening. The happy couple left for San Francisco on Monday where they will make their future home. The bride was for a number of years one of Mendocino County's popular teachers. The groom lived in Willits for many years before accepting a lucrative position in the metropolis. The DISPATCH joins the many friends in extending congratulations to the happy couple.

Gold Discovered.

J. N. Capell, of Willits, has discovered gold in paying quantities about two miles west of Willits near the old McNamer place on the Mendocino road. Two assays have already been made, one of which registered $40 to the ton. Capell feels elated and thinks he has struck it rich.

Married.

At the Parsonage of the M. E. Church, South, in Ukiah, Tuesday, June 19th, Rev. W. F. Coffin officiating, Gabriel Thompson of Walker Valley and Miss Josie Hardwick of Willits. The couple were guests at the Palace while in town.

CHAMP CLARK'S LETTER

Judge Terry Put Republicans In a Panic.

WITH A LITTLE AMENDMENT

A Complete Victory For the Democrats.

LITTLEFIELD'S ANTITRUST BILL.

In Effect It Would Have Placed Labor Unions at the Mercy of the Federal Courts—Republican Hypocrisy Exposed—Mark Hanna's Reign of Terror In Congress—An Able Trio In the House—The Cuban Scandal.

[Special Washington Letter.]

"Come up and lick salt!" was the command of the Democratic minority in the house to the Republican majority on the trust question. And the majority came, all except eight, amid the jeers and laughter of the Democrats. The eight who stood by their guns were Amos L. Allen of Maine, Bailey of Kansas, Butler, Calderhead, Cannon, Hitt, Littlefield and Long. It was a great historic scene—the hurrying and scurrying and crowding of the Republican friends of the trusts to get into the Democratic band wagon. Babcock of Wisconsin, chairman of the committee on the District of Columbia and chairman of the Republican congressional campaign committee, led the break to the Democrats. Babcock has a large labor vote in his district and knows, or thinks he knows, on which side his bread is buttered; hence he vaulted at one leap from the low level of the Republican trust quagmire into the Democratic triumphal car. The rest, except the eight aforementioned, followed Bellwether Babcock like little Bopeep's sheep, dragging their tails behind them. It was as complete a victory for the Democrats and as wild a panic among Republicans as this generation has seen. The thing that demoralized the Republican trust created and trust serving majority was this small amendment offered by Judge Terry of Arkansas to Littlefield's antitrust bill: "Nothing in this act shall be so construed as to apply to trade unions or other labor organizations organized for the purpose of regulating wages, hours of labor or other conditions under which labor is to be performed." "That fotch 'em!"

Now let's have a clear historic understanding as to the exact situation. The criminal features of the much vaunted Sherman antitrust law have never been used by the federal courts for any purpose except to punish, fine and imprison some members of a labor organization for striving to earn a subsistence for themselves, their wives and little children. The chief feature of the Littlefield bill was to so amend the aforesaid Sherman law as to increase the penalties. Consequently its inevitable effect, if administered by the federal judiciary as hitherto, would be to sock it to laboring men worse than ever, to rivet their chains upon them more thoroughly than ever and to let everybody else go scot free. All this was to be done in the name of the great body of the people. It was a piece of shameless hypocrisy, well calculated to deceive, but it did not work. Hence the haste of Bellwether Babcock and his flock to jump the fence.

Bogus Trust Smashers.

The minority offered amendment after amendment to better, widen and improve the Littlefield bill as a trust smasher, but as the Republicans are only bogus, make believe trust smashers they voted down these amendments with a grim and monotonous regularity, because they believed there was a chance of doing enough able-bodied lying about their meaning to humbug the people once more. But when the little amendment above set forth was offered Bab et id omne genus couldn't stand the pressure and rushed to cover pellmell, helter skelter. They realized that they were up against it hard. Now, having been whipped into voting for it—except the eight above named—they will swell up like toads and swear that they were for it. It's a lie!

Let's examine the facts. The representatives of organized labor begged the judiciary committee to incorporate that amendment into the Littlefield bill, which the Republican majority of that committee superciliously and insultingly refused to do, thereby publishing to the world that Republican servants of the trusts believe that a laboring man has no right which Republican congressmen are bound to respect. The Republican majority of the judiciary committee having refused to incorporate the labor amendment in the bill, the Democratic minority of that committee brought it into the house, offered it as an amendment to the bill, secured a roll call on it and drove the Republican double dealers into supporting it—all except eight. 'Twas a famous victory for labor and for Democrats under the leadership of Judge Terry of Arkansas.

When Judge Terry offered that amendment, the following brief but pregnant colloquy took place: George W. Ray of New York, Republican chairman of the judiciary committee, said: "Against that provision I raise the point of order that it is not in order, not being germain to this section." In that historic sentence Mr. Ray showed the cloven foot of the trusts.

To Ray's objection Speaker Henderson replied, "The chair overrules the point of order because, although the chair would have held the provision out of order as an original proposition, the order adopted by the house makes it in order."

A Trust Agent.

No doubt Mark Hanna would pay a big pile of money if the Ray-Henderson colloquy above set out verbatim et literatim could be expunged from The Congressional Record and from human memory, as it will perhaps cost the Republicans half a million votes.

And after all—after raising the point of order against the labor amendment, thereby giving the Republican snap away—poor Ray was forced to vote for the amendment and for the Littlefield bill as amended.

Only one Republican, Mann of Chicago, dared vote against the amended bill.

As Ray figures a good deal in this matter, it is proper to record here the description given of him by Hon. William Sulzer of New York on the floor of the house, which words are found on page 6928 of The Congressional Record. Ray having made an attack on Sulzer, Mr. Sulzer said: "He (Ray) knows I did not do it, and he knows that when he said that he told an untruth, and when he makes that mean, contemptible, insinuating charge I repel it and characterize it as it ought to be characterized. I say that no one on the floor of the house, except a trust agent such as he is, a tool, a machine man, an automaton, would make that kind of a statement."

Back of the Littlefield bill and preceding it in order of business was the famous hypocritical, bunko amendment to the constitution taking away from the United States the power to regulate, control or kill trusts. It was a grand stand play pure and simple. As it takes two-thirds of each house to submit an amendment, the authors and promoters of this precious piece of demagogy knew beforehand that it would never be submitted. They never expected it to be submitted.

Two self respecting Republicans could not be dragooned into voting for such a transparent fraud—Loud of California and McCall of Massachusetts. To show what a reign of terror is exercised by Republican leaders over the rank and file of Republican members and how they muzzle free speech I here record the astounding fact that the Republican managers would not give McCall, the representative of the Harvard district, even five minutes in which to express his dissent from that reckless and brazen piece of demagogy. He had to apply to Judge Terry, Democrat, for time. He got it, and this is the vigorous and classic way in which McCall stated his views: "I intend to vote against this proposed amendment to the constitution, which at the most will keep the word of promise to the ear, but break it to the hope. In my judgment, it confers upon congress the power to strike a most deadly blow at individual liberty."

A Dangerous Measure.

In that last sentence Mr. McCall hit the bullseye and no mistake. Republicans—the majority of them—on this occasion, led by the aforesaid Ray, were doing their best to serve the trusts and to place the laborers of the land absolutely in their power.

Mr. McCall continued in this vigorous fashion:

"So that this amendment involves practical control of all the capital of the country; it involves control of all the labor organizations of the country and of any copartnership or union of two or more men for any business purpose whatever.

"Now, the wealth of this country today is nearly $96,000,000,000, most of it in some form of combination or other. And then there is that far more magical and potent capital which is found in the brains and bodies of our people, and we propose—and it seems to me it is an amazing proposition—to confer upon the congress of the United States full and complete jurisdiction over all these productive energies. Even with these enormous interests dealt with in 45 different capitals and dissipated and scattered throughout the country they are yet strong enough too often to break down the resistance of human nature and produce corruption. And what will be the effect if we concentrate upon one body of men more than one-third of all the capital of the world and these other tremendous influences?

"Why, Mr. Speaker, is there a gentleman here who does not believe in his heart that if this power is conferred upon congress the most corrupt, the rottenest place in the universe, will be found right here in the city of Washington? Mr. Speaker, it will be time enough to talk about constitutional amendments when we shall have employed all those weapons against trusts that now exist in our constitutional armory. I think we are bound to use our best judgment in a matter of this importance. I think that we who begin the process of amending the constitution are just as much charged with responsibility as they who end it, and even more, because, having cast our votes for it, there goes with our votes the influence of our example. I find myself, therefore, unable to consent to put in our organic law this proposed amendment, which, if finally adopted, would, it seems to me, have the effect of ultimately overturning free institutions in this country."

Short, but Good.

In my judgment, the best one minute speech ever delivered in congress was that by Amos J. Cummings, the prince of Tammany Democrats, who followed McCall and who in discussing the constitutional amendment said:

"Mr. Speaker, I trust I am old enough in political life to know a wolf in sheep's clothing. There is one here more ravenous than the one that attacked the child of Llewellyn. Under the guise of an effort to destroy the trusts this is really a measure drawn in their interests. It is being used to tide over a presidential election. The house will pass it, and the senate lay it away until after the election. I know that William J. Bryan is alleged to have advocated a constitutional amendment to down the trusts, but this in its terms no more resembles his than a deck of cards resembles a Bible. I would as soon drink a cocktail made out of nitric acid under the guise of a soda cocktail as to vote for this resolution. No man in his right senses, it appears to me, can eat asafetida and fancy it molasses candy. I stand by the action of the Democratic caucus."

That is an oratorical gun worth whole reams of ordinary speeches. Amos Cummings is a Dandy, spelled with a big, big D.

The Williams Trio.

Shakespeare asks, "What's in a name?" and answers his own question as follows: "A rose by another name would smell as sweet." Whether that is true I shall not now undertake to say. However it may be, the name of Williams is popular among house Democrats. Three young men on our side bear the name of Williams. They are all strong, capable, faithful, rising—John S. Williams of Mississippi, serving his fourth term; J. R. Williams of Carmi, Ills., serving his third term, and William Elza Williams of Pittsfield, Ills., serving his first term. John S. of Mississippi is frequently and favorably mentioned as a Democratic candidate for the speakership; J. R.—Bob, as he is popularly called—is frequently and favorably mentioned for vice president, and William Elza, though a new hand, is rapidly surging to the front in the house. John S. and Bob are universally recognized as two of the ablest debaters on the Democratic side, and William Elza is admitted to have made one of the very best campaign speeches delivered in this congress by a new member, or, for that matter, by any sort of a member.

The man who can manage to make an interesting speech and win the applause of seasoned veterans on a subject dry as a powder house is a rara avis. That's precisely what William Elza did to the surprise and delight of his audience. "The Alaskan code and territorial government" bill was up, and William Elza got the floor.

Pledges Unredeemed.

For about ten minutes in a modest sort of way he spoke on the bill. The bill was a bore, the house was drowsy and a lazy sort of attention was given to that part of his speech. All of a sudden he hopped on to the Republicans about their capers in Cuba, and everybody pricked up his ears and listened. Reading the Republican platform pledge as to Cuba, he turned to the Republicans and said:

"What have you done to redeem that pledge? Goaded on by the Democratic minority in this house, you were forced to declare war against Spain, as the people supposed when they gave it their support, for the freedom of the people of the island of Cuba. A glorious victory was won, decisive battles were fought and a treaty of peace signed. Have you redeemed your pledge and promise? Tell me why it is that Cuba is festering under the corruption lately developed in the officials appointed by this government, equaling the looting conducted by the officials sent over from Spain to govern them prior to the treaty of peace?"

Mr. Clark of Missouri—Under a carpetbag government.

"Yes, carpetbag government, and that is what the Democratic party opposes. We oppose sending these men to govern Alaska, to govern the people of Cuba. You say, my friends, in your platform declaration, that these people are entitled to their independence, and yet you refuse and deny it to them. You send carpetbaggers there. You send postal officials there. For what purpose? To govern these people against their consent and against their will. You have sent army officials there and given them double salaries. In addition to the regular salaries provided by the laws of this country and without authority of congress, they have put into their pockets an equal amount received from the revenues of Cuba, paid by the people of that island.

Pertinent Questions.

"Your officials go there to conduct the postoffice department, and today not less than half a dozen of them are under arrest, charged with spoliation, with looting, with stealing, with theft as bad as was ever perpetrated by the officials sent there by Spain to govern these people. Answer me, gentlemen, why is it that you have not redeemed your platform pledges? The promise you gave to those people was that they should be free; that they were entitled to their independence. Why do you hold them down as a subject people? Why enforce military occupation? Why maintain a carpetbag government there? Why do you send men to rob and prey upon them and deny them the independence which you proclaimed in your platform of 1896?"

William Elza's pertinent and far-reaching questions have not been answered to this day by any Republican. He then read an account of the enormous thefts of Neely, Rathbone & Co.; also an editorial from the London Times praising McKinley about his friendliness for the English in the African war. With these texts he proceeded to flay the Republicans alive or, as Governor David A. Ball of Missouri would say, "to limb, skin and jayhawk them." It was a fetching speech for Democracy, and his remarks were received by his Democratic brethren with cordial and uproarious applause.

Acker's Saved Her Life

"About two miles from Vassar, Mich., where I keep a drug store, lives Mrs. T. M. Bratt. She was very sick and hopeless with consumption. I watched her case with interest after she began taking Acker's English Remedy for Consumption, because I had heard so much about its wonderful cures. Well, sir, perhaps you will doubt it, but with my own eyes I saw this woman get well and strong on that remedy. In a very short time the cough stopped, her lungs were healed up, the soreness went away, and she began taking on flesh. She herself said: 'Mr. Bullard, I owe my life to Acker's English Remedy. It is a certain cure.' In Mrs. Bratt's neighborhood her recovery has occasioned much comment, as you can easily understand. Her case was one where everybody thought it was only a question of a little while until she would die. I feel it a duty as a druggist to write this letter, so that there need be no more deaths from consumption."

PEOPLE OF THE DAY.

The question of social precedence is one that agitates Washington a great deal—in fact, the capital is scarcely ever entirely free of it. The most recent flurry in that line has Mrs. George Dewey and Mrs. Nelson A. Miles as the principal figures. Both ladies stand high in Washington social circles, and each is credited with strong social ambitions. General Miles is soon to be made a full lieutenant general, an office held to be equal in rank to that of admiral of the navy. Where there is this equality of official rank there can be no social primacy, but were either the admiral or the coming lieutenant general made vice president the social question would be solved in favor of the successful candidate, or solved, at least, to the satisfaction of the rest of his household. Mrs. General Miles is the daughter of the late Judge Sherman of Ohio, who was a brother of Senator Sherman. Her sister is the wife of ex-Senator Don Cameron.

It doesn't look now as if the vice presidential complication can be safely depended upon to settle the question of supremacy for the ladies.

"Wolf" Thompson.

Ernest Seton-Thompson, popularly known as "Wolf" Thompson, the friend of wild animals and author of "The Biography of a Grizzly," has become a popular lecturer. Mr. Thompson says that his leaving Manitoba for New York was due to an order for over 1,000 drawings of birds and animals to illustrate the Century Dictionary. On finishing this task, ten years ago, he went immediately to Paris, where his first picture, "A Sleeping Wolf," was given a conspicuous place "on the line" at the Salon. The writing of his "Grizzly" book (which appeared first in The Century) is said to have been prompted by Rudyard Kipling, who had listened with breathless interest to its relation at the dinner table of a mutual friend.

The Senior Commander In the East.

Should it become necessary for the United States to join with other powers in the use of extreme measures to put down the "Boxers" in China, we will not be caught unprepared. We have 55 war vessels in eastern waters. The Asiatic squadron is of course available and is in good condition. The squadron is under command of Rear Admiral Kempff, senior squadron commander.

tered the Naval academy at Annapolis through the influence of Dan Morrison, who was then a member of congress from Missouri. At the beginning of the civil war young Kempff entered the service as a midshipman. He served on the Mohican, Wabash and Susquehanna, and distinguished himself on several occasions. When the war with Spain began, he was stationed at Mare Island, San Francisco, as colonel of marines and had charge of the recruiting of men for naval service. Rear Admiral Kempff reached his present high position by meritorious service in the intermediary ranks and enjoys the confidence of the head of the department in which he serves.

Origin of Octave Thanet.

Miss Alice French (Octave Thanet) spoke to a friend not long ago upon the origin of her pen name.

"My writing and my pen name are purely matters of chance. I had my first stories in my mind for ten years before I put them on paper, and I only disposed of them then because I thought they might aid the people whose cause I was interested in. 'Octave,' the first part of my pen name, was the Christian name of a schoolmate who was a great inspiration to me in my writing, and 'Thanet' was the name of a freight car which the children of my neighborhood loved to play in and about."

feet in pleasing confusion. The lining of gray French cambric is adorned at the bottom with a plaited ruffle of gray taffeta six inches wide, falls quite free from the cashmere, but is mounted on the same waistband.

The full bodice is mounted in small box plaits on a straight yoke and gathered at the waist. The yoke is concealed by the large collar of white taffeta with scalloped edge bordered with silver braid and trimmed with rows of the braid, which are arranged in little half circles, with a wee silver button at either end. The wide ceinture is of white taffeta deftly draped round the waist and dipping to a point in the center. The collar band matches the ceinture, and the long, comfortably fitted sleeves are finished without garniture. —Philadelphia Ledger.

Lovely Things For Summer.

Berthas and fichus are the loveliest things this year. Heretofore we have worn them in cream and white, but our little cousins across the sea are making them of the same material as their gowns or fancy waists. This is a very good piece of news, for in this way we can remodel some of our last year's dresses which are somewhat the worse for wear. I saw a Persian lawn made in this manner, and it was quite the prettiest idea for trimming that I have come across for a great while; the shapely bertha, in fine valenciennes insertion and lace; another, an Irish dimity, with the daintiest of Dresden designs in moss roses, had a bertha of wonderfully original cut, trimmed in point d'esprit. On the edge was a series of fine tucks, then pink satin ribbons sewed on in five rows close together. The ends were caught and held by an enameled scarf ring.

These scarfpins are all the rage at the present time. In gold filigree, jeweled, rose gold, silver and oxidized they are particularly effective. These are also fastened by the newest of clef pins, which are fastened in such a manner that they cannot come undone. That standby for a number of years, the stickpin, has but few admirers.

Stitched belts fastened with a small buckle or tiny pin seem to find favor with a large number of women who usually manage to wear what others have overlooked.

"And he forbade it?" they suggested inquiringly.

"Worse than that," he replied.

"How could it be worse than that?" they asked.

"He put a coat of luminous paint on it," he answered, and of course nothing remained but to vote him the prize for the best hard luck story of the session. —Chicago Times-Herald.

His Musical Sense.

"What is your favorite opera?" asked the foreign gentleman.

Mr. Cumrox was about to answer, "The Mikado," when he observed that the eyes of his wife and daughter were upon him. Then he assumed an air of nonchalance and answered:

COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER

Census experts approximate the census of the United States at 79,000,000: San Francisco is supposed to be 12th in the list of cities with a population of 340,000.

The Trusts, Railroad magnates, Corporation agents and English aristocracy have been holding high carnival at Philadelphia this week. The people will have an inning at Kansas city on July 4th.

As the Hanna wing of the republican party has declared against the Declaration of Independance and the Constitution they will in all probability withdraw from all 4th of July Celebrations this year.

The Hannaites at Philadelphia this week condemned Grover Cleveland's policy in strong terms and then turned around and eulogized McKinley's which was but a continuation of the stuffed Prophet's. Consistency!

The late democratic convention at Sacramento which was composed of free and independent men was quite a contrast to the republican corporation, boss rule convention, which convened at the same place some three weeks before.

Hon J. Q. White, of this city, was honored by the Sacramento convention by being elected alternate delegate to the Kansas City convention. He was also elected a member of the State Central Committee. This is a just tribute to Mendocino's popular citizen.

A San Francisco paper says: "Delegate Ostrom will go back to Tuolumne a disappointed man," etc. Such is fame, and such the ignorance of the San Francisco press about men and things in California. Delegate Ostrom never resided in Tuolumne, but was a prominent Senator from Yuba for many years and still lives there.

The Republicans carried Oregon this year by a majority of 8,000. Last year they carried it by over 10,000 and now they are tickled to death because they have made a loss of only 2,000. If such bad news as this is so pleasing we wonder what these fellows did expect anyhow. Next November when Bryan beats McKinley by about 40 electoral votes no doubt some Hannaites will be tickled to death because it wasn't 100!

The Democrats of Mendocino County should begin to organize at once for the campaign. It is not necessary to wait until after the Kansas City convention. The issues are already made and the candidate for President has virtually been nominated. The convention will be a ratification meeting. Let us put our shoulders to the wheel now and begin active work. There is every prospect of success if we will only work. Don't delay but begin precinct organization at once and see that every democrat in the country is registered.

Apropos of the extravagant claims of the Republican leaders, that hard times have ceased and that universal prosperity reigns, it is interesting to note that Dun & Co's circular for May states that the failures for that month are larger in number and and amount than in any preceding year of which a record has been kept, amounting to some $23,000,000 as against $3,000,000 for the same time last year. It is true that Hanna, and men of his ilk are prosperous, but we find in his and their prosperity a literal fulfillment of the scripture which says. "To him that hath shall be given and from him that hath not shall be taken, even that he hath". But this has been going on about long enough. The common people would like to have a change, and they propose to bring it about.

NEWS AND COMMENT.

Judge Belcher of San Francisco on Thursday filed an important opinion in which he holds that marriages of persons divorced in this state within 12 months after the decree of divorce has been made are invalid, and that in the eyes of the law, such persons are unmarried persons.

This was received with consternation by the hundreds of Californians who have skipped to Reno to get married and many have been remarried to be doubly sure that the knot was tied OK.

DEMOCRATIC PRESS LEAGUE.

The Democratic Editors of California met in Sacramento last Thursday for the purpose of organizing for the campaign. J. B. Sanford, of Ukiah, was elected President and E. E. Leake, of Woodland, Vice President. An executive committee of 15 was elected to assume control of campaign work. Thirty-five editors signed the roll and many more that were not present will sign at the first opportunity. The organization ought to be able to accomplish much.

THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CONTENTION.

The Democraric State Convention, which convened in Sacramento last Thursday, was one of the most harmonions gatherings in the history of the State. It was composed of able and free men and was in touch with the masses of the people. The delegates seemed to vie with one another in promoting harmony and victory was in the very air.

The platform had the true ring to it and represents the sentiment of the majority of the people of the state and nation. It is as follows:

The Democrats of California, in convention assembled for purposes pertaining to the ensuing national election, reserve all declarations upon State issues until the next State convention for the nomination of Presidential electors, and confine all present expressions to national affairs or those intimately associated therewith.

We reaffirm the principles of Jeffersonian Democracy as enunciated in in the platform adopted by the last National Democratic Convention.

We demand such an amendment to the constitution of the United States as will provide for an income tax.

We favor an amendment to the constitution of the United States requiring the election of United State Senators by a direct vote of the people.

We favor the immediate construction and the control and protection o the Nicaragua canal by the United States.

We extend to the people of the South African republics our sympathy in their heroic struggle to preserve their national integrity and to vindicate the immutable principle that governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed, and we, therefore, condemn the present Republican administration for its unfriendly attitude toward these republics.

We are unalterably opposed to imperialism in any form.

We condemn the Porto Rican tariff law recently enacted by the present Republican Congress as a bold and open violation of the nation's organic law and a flagrant breach of good faith.

We assert that the constitution follows the flag, and we denounce the doctrine that an executive or a Congress, created and limited by the constitution can exercise lawful authority beyond that constitution or in violation of it. Believing that a nation cannot long endure part republic and part empire, we oppose wars of conquest and colonial possession.

We favor the immediate abolition of all unnecessary war taxes.

The Democratic party has repeatedly called the attention of the country to the growing danger of large combinations of capital, which absorb the business of a nation, check enterprise and restrict and stunt individual effort and opportunity. These evils, so often predicted, are now fully realized, and the vast trusts which now control the industries of the country will, in the near future, openly dominate, as they now secretly manipulate, all governmental agencies, unless by a change in the political complexion of the Government and the enactment of laws for their suppression they are deprived of further opportunity for the injury and enbeing and prosperity of the people, and we demand the repeal of all laws giving special privileges to any person, class, locality or interest.

We favor the re-enactment and improvement of the Chinese exclusion act and the enactment of such laws as will exclude all Asiatic labor. We call the attention to the inconsistency of the Republican party, which while imposing extravagant taxation upon the masses of the American people for the benefit of favored interests, under the guise of protecting American labor, is at the same time pursuing a policy which, if successful, must result in bringing the American toiler into direct competition with millions of unassimilated Asiatics.

We recognize the splendid ability and unswerving integrity of William J. Bryan, and we heartily indorse him for President of the United States and hereby instruct the delegates elected by this convention to use all honorable means to secure his nomination.

FOR CONGRESS.

It is now time for the Democrats to begin looking around for Congressional timber if they expect to win this district in the coming election. There will be little time for preliminaries after the Augnst convention and the nominee of that convention should be quietly working now in order to insure success.

The DISPATCH takes pleasure in presenting the name of Theo. A. Bell, of Napa, for the Democratic nomination. Mr. Bell is a young man of force and is now serving his second term as District Attorney of Napa County. Napa is ordinarily republican by 500 majority, yet young Bell has always been able to secure an election by a good majority. He is just the man to make the race for Congress and if any democrat can win out Bell can. This district needs some young blood infused into it. When it comes down to real good campaigning Bell takes a back seat for no one. Let the Democrats of this district decide on Bell now so that he can begin his fight at once, Let the August convention be simply a ratification meeting. Nominate Bell now and let him get to work and he can win.

Death of Mrs. Guidi.

Mrs. Milo Guidi died at her home in this city last Friday night of pneumonia. The deceased had been undergoing treatment for cancer and was doing first rate, when she took cold which brought on pneumonia resulting in her death. She was a native of Italy and was 47 years old. The funeral took place Sunday from the Catholic church.

Would Not Suffer So Again for Fifty Times Its Price.

I awoke last night with severe pains in my stomach. I never felt so badly in all my life. When I came down to work this morning I felt so weak I could hardly work. I went to Miller & McCurdy's drug store and they recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It worked like magic and one dose fixed me all right. It certainly is the finest thing I ever used for stomach trouble. I shall not be without it in my home hereafter, for I should not care to endure the sufferings of last night again for fifty times its price.—G. H. WILSON, Liveryman, Burgettstown, Washington Co., Pa. This remedy is for sale by all dealers.

Just as Sure as Fate.

You will confirm our statement when we say that Acker's English Remedy is in every way superior to any and all other preparations for Throat and Lungs, if you will only give it a trial. In Whooping Cough and Croup it is magic and relieves at once. We offer you a sample bottle free, and sell this remedy on a positive guarantee to do as recommended or refund the money. W. A. HAIR HELP

So many persons have hair that is stubborn and dull. It won't grow. What's the reason? Hair needs help just as anything else does at times. The roots require feeding. When hair stops growing it loses its luster. It looks dead.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

acts almost instantly on such hair. It awakens new life in the hair bulbs. The effect is astonishing. Your hair grows, becomes thicker, and all dandruff is removed.

And the original color of early life is restored to faded or gray hair. This is always the case.

$1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor, and am really astonished at the good it has done in keeping my hair from coming out. It is the best tonic I have tried, and I shall continue to recommend it to my friends."
MATTIE HOLT,
Sept. 24, 1898. Burlington, N. C.

If you do not obtain all the benefits you expected from the use of the Hair Vigor, write the Doctor about it.
DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass.

NEW GROCERY STORE.

In the Dowling Block---Ukiah Cal.

Having bought the stock of groceries recently owned by the Ukiah Milling Co., I propose to put in at once a complete line of staple and fancy groceries, feed and such goods as are generally kept in a grocery store.

I shall buy for cash and will be able to sell as low as the lowest and would respectfully solicit from the public a share of its patronage.

The highest market price paid for country produce.

Mr. John Snow will be with me and hopes that his old friends and customers will continue to patronize him. j15-tf I. W. GROVER.

MISCELLANEOUS NEWS ITEMS

Theo. Fulwider, of Hearst, and John Dickey were among the wool growers in town this week.

R. H. Orr, representing Henry Seimer general agent for State of California, for Rand, McNaly & Co., will be in town for a few days with the "Expansion Atlas" containing new maps of the world and other descriptive matter.

Geo. Hurd met with a very painful accident last Sunday at Blue Lakes. He was tending bar and waiting on his many customers when a beer bottle exploded and cut his left eye quite badly and bruised the cheek bone. Dr. Kellogg was called from Lakeport and dressed the wound and Geo. is now getting on nicely.

Miss Mattie Thomas returned to her home in this city Sunday after having spent a term at Sweets Business College in Santa Rosa. Miss Mattie graduated from the commercial department with high standing.

Mrs. S. L. Sanford and Mrs. P. P. McPeak left on yesterday's train for Seattle, having been called hither on the account of the serious illness of Mrs. J. L. O'Rouke (nee Sanford). They were accompanied as far as San Francisco by J. B. Sanford.

Last fall I sprained my left hip while handling some heavy boxes. The doctor I called on said at first it was a slight strain and would soon be well, but it grew worse and the doctor then said I had rheumatism. It continued to grow worse and I could hardly get around to work. I went to a drug store and the druggist recommended me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I tried it and one-half of a 50-cent bottle cured me entirely. I now recommend it to all my friends.—F. A. Babcock, Erie, Pa. It is for sale by all dealers.

Miss Minnie Moon, a popular teacher of Sutter County, will arrive in Ukiah this evening on a visit to the Misses Kirtley.

A Healthy Growth.

Acker's Elixir has gained a firm hold among our people and is acknowledged to be superior to all other preparations. It is a positive cure for all blood and skin diseases. Only fifty cents a bottle and we guarantee it. W. A. Hoffman, Druggist.

About 60 wool men have been in town this week trying to dispose of the spring clip.

Dr. Odle has moved into the house recently occupied by the late Wm. Ballinger and family.

Attorney W. P. Thomas has been in Oakland and San Francisco for the past week on legal business.

Miss Nellie Woods, a school teacher of Santa Barbara, and Miss Perley Spencer, head book-keeper of the Ventura bank, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Huestis for a few days this week. They will visit Saratoga Springs before returning home.

Mrs. Standfield has returned from a visit to her daughter Mrs. Potter.

T. J. McGimsey came up from Sonoma Wednesday to attend wool sale. It seemed like old times to see T. J. around chatting with old friends.

L. J. Williams, Paschal Hardin, Geo Jones and Roy McAninch were down from Long Valley attending wool sale this week.

Tennessee Bill, who had been reported dead several times, arrived in town this week and dispelled said illusion by giving a few war whoops that would almost wake the dead. Tennessee left for Humboldt yesterday.

Last Friday evening a party of about 20 young ladies and gentlemen of this city enjoyed a hay ride out to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Fine, giving the Misses Fine a complete surprise. The party was hospitably entertained and spent a most enjoyable evening.

Belle Boyd, the famous spy of confederate fame is dead.

A Card of Thanks.

I wish to say that I feel under lasting obligations for what Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has done for our family. We have used it in so many cases of coughs, lung troubles and whooping cough, and it has always given the most perfect satisfaction, we feel greatly indebted to the manufacturers of this remedy and wish them to please accept our hearty thanks.—Respectfully, Mrs. S. Doty, Des Moines, Iowa. For sale by all dealers.

Death at Covelo.

James Allen Shore, the oldest pioneer in the section around Covelo, died last Tuesday night. He was born in Kentucky and came to this State in 1849, and to Mendocino County in 1856, where he has since resided. He leaves a widow, twelve children, thirty grand children, and twenty-five great grand children surviving. Deceased was 83 years old.

A Thousand Tongues.

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1125 Howard St., Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this Royal Cure—"it soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the Universe." So will every one who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at J. R. Mathews' City Pharmacy. Every bottle guaranteed.

Miss Eva Owens has closed the Yorkville school and will make Ukiah a visit.

Couldn't Blow Out the Lights.

A man came in from Covelo the other night and stopped at the Palace. His intended also came in with 6 children and registered. The anxious couple were married in the meantime and were given a room, with electric lights. Next morning the groom rushed down to the clerk and said: What in the devil's the matter with the lights? I tried to light my cigar and couldn't. I then tried to blow it out and couldn't and when I woke up this morning the derned thing was still burnin."

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters,' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at J. R. For the Farmer.

The most permanent asset in all the world, says Texas Farm and Ranch, is land, not city lots—they are not land, but merely foundations for buildings—but farm land, the source of nearly all wealth and the absolutely indispensable factor in human existence. Land is also, and for the same reason, the most stable in value of all property. The history of every financial panic shows that when property of every kind comes tumbling down in value and only money holds its own farm land comes more nearly mantaining its value than any other species of property. Why is this? Because the products of the soil are necessary to life and must be had at whatever cost and because, no matter what occurs in the financial world, the farmer who owns his home has an assurance of at least a living and that he cannot be turned out of doors on account of inability to pay rent and being in the country he is exempt from the burden of municipal taxes, which weigh so heavily on the city property owner. The city landlord, unable to rent his property, must sacrifice it or be badly hurt by the inevitable tax gatherer; hence city property decreases in value with every indication of financial uneasiness. We would not in consequence of these facts advise town people to rush out into the country and buy farms, for most of them would be as much out of place there as a "whited sepulcher" in paradise. Under present conditions we must have towns, and towns must have people, and these people must make some money to buy indispensable farm products with, and then the farmer must turn the money back to the town people in exchange for things that do not grow on farms, and thus the current of commerce is kept flowing, carrying contentment to people in both town and country. But if one wants to farm, wants to lead a life of independence, with a full assurance that he will not become a pauper no matter what may happen in the stock market, there is but one recourse, and that is to buy a farm or buy land and make a farm; go to work, and, come what may, after awhile he can sit under his own grapevine and fruit tree, and nobody may make him afraid. The time will come—is coming—when even this refuge will be hard to reach, for farm land will continue to increase in value on account of its importance in the economy of human life.

Commercial Fertilizers.

Commercial fertilizers only benefit the soil for the immediate crop, says C. L. Hardman in The Prairie Farmer. My father used to use commercial fertilizers, and the crops then growing were benefited, but the soil was left in worse shape apparently than if nothing had been applied to it. Commercial fertilizers are good for the vegetable garden and strawberry bed and also aid in securing a stand of clover on poor land, but further than this they are detrimental. What most soils need is humus or partly decayed vegetable matter, as well as the elements of fertility, such as nitrogen, etc. There may be ever so much plant food in the soil of rather in the subsoil, but if the soil lacks humus it will do the growing crop no good, because it is locked up and needs something to mellow the soil up and reach down into the subsoil and bring the plant food up where the roots of the growing crops can get hold of it. This clover will do most thoroughly and at the same time produce a very good paying crop. If the land is badly worn out and you wish immediate returns from it, apply a light dressing of barnyard manure. The results will be very marked. If I had land that would produce 45 or more bushels of corn per acre under favorable conditions, I would plant two crops of corn, one of small grain, then seed to clover again. But if it would not produce that much when the season was favorable I would take but one crop of corn and would prefer the crop of small grain to be rye or wheat rather than oats, as it is not so exhausting to the soil. If my soil was badly lacking in humus, was run together and baked badly, I would plow the second growth clover under, otherwise I would pasture it off or mow either for hay or seed.

Permanent Pastures.

The permanent pasture will soon be the most valuable feature of every well regulated farm where stock is kept, and when we establish these pastures we will pay close attention to a mixture of grass seeds which will produce grass the year round. I value the often despised orchard grass. It furnishes a good bite of grass in the spring before any other variety has started into growth. Horses are very fond of it at all times, but cattle like other grasses better.—Land and a Living.

Cosmopolitan Sheep.

Some sheep will live and thrive anywhere. They are cosmopolitan, as we say, at home everywhere. The merino is such a sheep, forming the bulk of the stock of Germany, France, Spain, Australia, South Africa and South and North America, and the prominent British breeds enjoy the same happy adaptation to circumstances, having been companions of the merinos wherever they have been carried and thriving with equal facility.—Sheep Breeder.

The English Sparrows.

A law has just been enacted in France, which is to go into effect July 1, exempting the sparrow from the protection which is given to insect eating birds, and the farmers are declaring a war of extermination against them.

It is estimated that Great Britain, which exported to Germany about 5,000,000 tons of anthracite and bituminous coals during the year 1899, will not be able to spare for that country more than 2,000,000 tons during the present year.

The peculiar conditions of navigation in the English channel make it seem probable that wireless telegraphy will first be actually placed in practical operation in connection with the passenger boats sailing between Dover and Calais, the Boulogne and Folkestone.

The wonder is that such a creature as the empress dowager should be allowed to reside in Peking and to retain her unwholesome influence so long. She has no hesitation in murdering her most enlightened subjects wholesale without regard to their ability, work or rank.

GOOD THINGS TO EAT.

What they are depends mostly on the condition of the eater.

Most anything is good to eat if a man is properly, healthily hungry.

Every man is properly hungry at more or less distinct intervals if he is healthy.

Corned beef and cabbage taste better to a healthy, hungry man than terrapin and paté de foi gras to the jaded appetite of a dyspeptic. The enjoyment of eating depends on the condition of the stomach, liver, bowels, and kidneys. If these do not do their work properly there accumulates in them undigested, fermenting, putrid, blood poisoning matter. The appetite cannot be healthy till this is removed. A machine will not run if it is all clogged up with dirt. The stomach cannot appropriate food unless it is clean, and so healthy hunger cannot come. The stomach cannot be clean if the liver and bowels do not dispose of the food passed along to them. If poisonous, effete matter is allowed to accumulate and congest the liver and bowels more or less of it gets into the blood, and is carried all over the body. Is it any wonder that it makes you sick?

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is designed to correct all disorders of the digestive and blood-making system and to drive all impurities out of the blood itself.

It restores lost appetite and vitality, builds healthy flesh and muscle, changes sickness to health, misery to happiness.

John A. Calloway, Esq., of No. 218 26th Street, Columbus, Ga., writes: "I had catarrh for four years and also liver and kidney trouble. In 1894 I was working at night and I broke out in lumps all over and when these left, the skin peeled off. My eyes were sunken and I had pimples and brown spots on my face. Now these are all gone, and I believe I am entirely well. I have a good appetite, but before I commenced taking your 'Golden Medical Discovery' I had no appetite at all. Now I am like a child—ready to eat at any time of the day or night."
